The young folks had a fishing party on

The boys are trying to get up a game Preaching at both churches last Sunday.

Attendance good. Chas. Goessling, of St. Louis, was Old Uncle Johny Mathis died at his home in Callao last week.

The city debt of Huntsville is $16,041.61 L. Salisbury, and Wm. Mincer, of Salis oury, were in town Wednesday. Our young friend, Wm. Schwartz, made flying trip to Glasgow last Sunday.

Go to the M. E. church to-night-th Dont forget the meeting at the Metho dist church to-night—help the needy.

Dr. Holland has the genuine raccincirus, and is prepared to vaccinate all.

The Grangers held a grand pic-nic a Fair View, Boone county, last Tuesday. Go to Dr. Holland and be vaccinated : it may save you from an attack of small-

Miss Ida Veatch, who has been in Salisbury for a short time, spent last Sunday at Miss Nora Botts, of Glasgow spent a part of this week in town vtsiting her sister, Mrs. Dysart.

The Boonville public school (colored) have their annual exhibition in that city The weather for the past few days has been very warm. The thermometer stood

Mr. Abbott, of New Orleans, son-in-law of Mr. Jno. P. Williams, of this county, was

The Cole county fair will be held fou

Geo. M. Wilson, and Mrs. Crawford are erecting two nice frame dwellings. Both will be finished soon.

The Linn county circuit court convene on Tuesday, the 4th. Some of the ba m this place are attending.

The Murphy organization, of Moberly, lost their library in the $20,000 fire at that place, on Monday of last week. Miss Ross Moore, of Dalton, was in town

Wednesday, visiting friends. She has many friends here who were glad to see her. It is reported that smallpox has broken tice of this and be vaccinated at once. Dr. Holland informs us that he has just received a supply of vaccine virus, and is prepared to vaccinate all who desire to be. J.H.Ralston, Esq., of Leavenworth, Kan-sas, arrived in town Wednesday, looking after his real estate interests in Chariton

The Democrat says that in the locality of Carrollton there never has been a year so promising for all kinds of fruits and berries."

Spring chickens are begining to turn; in fact, some of the earlier crop are already ripe. We've tried em, and can't be fooled

Macon county, fell into a well last week, but was rescued without receiving seri-

Mrs. Eliza J. Sronfe. I the wishesto know the whereabon of her said lighter E. Clark, who was no at New Jondon, Mo., when last heard from

The Moberly people are trying very hard to get up a fair this fall. They have al-ready leased a few acres of land. Now, if they can just borrow a little money to

It was exceedingly warm last Sunday. We can prove the truth of this assertion by about 18 of the boys. Nine on a side. That's the way it used to be. We were

Go to M. B. Aldrich to get your painting, paper hanging, &c., done. He is prepared to execute all such work with dispatch, and in good style. Leave orders at Wil-

There is to be a grand old fashioned cel-stration at Macon on the coming 4th of July. A glee club has been organized and are in training for the purpose of furnishing music for the occasion.

A correspondent of the Glasgow Jour-nal, writing from Forest Green, says the hogs are dying at a fearful rate in some neighborhoods, causing a terrible stench along the roads in that section.

A large choir of ladies, who have been raise funds to pay for an organ for the attending circuit court, now in session there, while Mrs. S. and the little folks are visiting friends. They will return the first R. H. Hammond, Esq., of Brunswick delivered an effecting temperance lecture at the M. E. Church last Friday evening. Having given the cause considerable at ention, his arguments are logical, pathetic Nearly all of our neighboring towns are arranging to celebrate the coming Fourth of July in an appropriate manner. Why not have a grand old fashioned picnic here in rememberance of our national birthday.

The books purchased by the Keytesville Library Association have arrived, but have not been unpacked, as the Association has not yet selected a room. Would it not be well for the officers to have a meeting, and nake a selection at once.

A temperance mass meeting will be held at Scribner School house, on next Sunday afternoon, June 9th, at 3 o'clock. Speak ers are invited and will be present. All are cordially invited to turn out, and, by their presence, aid in the good work.

Mr. E. A. Holcomb took his departure for St. Louis last week. Mr. H. has been engaged in the practice of his profession here, for some fifteen years, and has many warm friends who will regret to loose him He will resume the practice in St. Louis.

The total amount of the bonded indebt lness of Chariton county, now outstanding is $175,100. This ammount is made up o bonds as follows: Chillicothe and Bruns wick railroad bonds $77,100, and of Mis souri and Mississippi railroad bonds, $98,

If you want to be "done over" go to Overstreet's new Barber Shop and get shaved, hair cut, and a good shampoo. Mr. Overstreet is one of the very best barbers in the State, and he'll make you feel like a new man.

Some of the material that we have order ed from the East to be used in the publica tion of the Counter has not been received and we are not able this week to give the paper the appearance, mechanically, that we intend it shall present to its readers when we get under full headway.

We learn that on Thursday of last weel a boy named Allison, while attempting to board a passing train at Bucklin, fell beneath the car, which passed over him, severing one leg and otherwise injuring his body, from the effects of which he died Saturday.

Two little girls, daughters of Mr. Simmons, of New Cambria, while returning home from school a few days ago, were met and terribly scared by some naughty boys. The girls ran away, and were chased by the boys till one of the girls was frightened

Another dividend of ten per cent. has been declared on all balances due creditors of the defunct bank of B. N. Tracy & Son of Macon. This is the second dividend paid, the first being twenty-five per cent. making a total of about thirty-two and a half per cent.

Mrs. Patsey McCulloch, an old and highly respected citizen of Boonville, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Capt. Thos. George, on Saturday, the 25th ult., at the advanced age of 89. She was the mother of Col. Rob't. McCulloch, at present colector of Cooper county.

There will be an adjourned session of the probate court held in this month, comning during the week, or until the business of the May term is completed. Adminis-trators, guardians and curators will take Mr. Fredrick Kreeck, Keytesville, Mo.,

workmen in North Missouri, always guar mile Pills are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Dys-peptic Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness and Sleeplessness, and will cure any case. Price 50 cents a box, 30 pills, postage free. Sold by all druggists. Office, No. 106 N. Eutaw st., Baltimore, Md. 78yl

The Chillicothe Constitution came to us last week with its first page entirely covered with a showy advertisement of J. L. Buford & Co., druggists of that place. We will bet seventeen hundred and fifty-three thousand dollars, or half we are worth, that Buford & Co. are making mon-

wm. Grant, John Keiman, and Wm. P.
Lee, St. Louis; C. M. Daly, St. Louis Journal. S. S. Merriman, Chicago, and Dr. N.
M. Baskett, Parris, Mo.; were in fown during the week.

Two young men started out on a walk one evening last week. We won't give the particulars of how one imposed upon the other's confidence; but it was a right
"flowery" trick.

The following young gentlemen of the The following young gentlemen of this city and vicinity left for New Mexico, having entered the service of Col. Jas. B. Price in connection with his stage routes: John Riggins, John Rumsey, James Rumsey, Pope Gordon, P. Kidder, Mr. Sullen, A. Eaton, C. Eaton, Andy Lester, V. Walde, Ben Meyers, and Thomos J. Revd.—Tribune. Mr. Benard Eveler's horse ran away Tues. day, and, after making the circuit of the square, ran into Mr. Hagen's house. The door was closed, but the horse threw his weight against it and it flew open, and he would have gone through the house, but the door being too narrow, the shafts caught, and stopped the excited animal.—Tribuac.

Rev. W. W. Jones will (D. V.) preach at the following times and places: Prairie Chapel, 2d Sabbath at 11 o'clock: Indian Grove Church, 2d Sabbath at 4 o'clock p. m.; Keytesville, 3d Sabbath at 11 a. m.; Agee School House, 3d Sabbath at 4 p. m.; Bell School House, Saturday before the 4th Sabbath, at 11 a. m.; Pleasant Grove, 4th meighborhoods, causing a terrible stonch along the roads in that section.

May be school House, 3d Sabbath at 11 a. m., Ages School House, 3d Sabbath at 41 a. m., Bell School House, Saturday before the 4th Sabbath, at 11 a. m.; Pleasant, 5th Sabbath at 11 a. m.; Mt. Pleasant, 5th Sabbath at 11 a. m., Mt. Pleasant, 5th Sabbath at 11 a. m.

On last Saturday evening, is the glowing good week for the business, either.

A meeting of the citizens will be held at the Methodist church this evening to raise means to assist the suffering people of Richmond. We hope our citizens will attend and be liberal in their contributions.

The residence of Dr. Miles, Boonville, was recently burglarized of a spleadid suit of clothes, the thief entering the house, while Mrs. Miles and her daughter were flooking at him from a second story window.

From a correspondence in the Chillicothe practising the past two months for that purpose, will "Castata" in Callao this evening. The object of the entertainment is to remarkably well, promising an abundant yield at an early harvest. Our corn crop Judge O. F. Smith and family left Tuesis an average stand throughout the town-sihip, and looks vigorous considering the day evening, for Linueus. The judge is

It is asserted that the wheat crop of Car roll county will fall considerably short of a full crop, while the cut-worm and mice are playing havoc with the corn. Many farmers have had to replant their fields. Notwith-stending the late rains have slightly dam aged corn in this county, the prospect for a good yield is fair, while wheat promises a

Saline county is to have three fairs this fall. One at Miami, commencing Tues- and enterprises, we conclude by refering day, August 27th, and continuing four days: to advertisements, ect., which we do ne at Marshall, begining Tuesday, September 3d, continuing five days; one at Brownsville, commencing Tuesday, Sep-tember 10th, continuing five days. From the above we should judge the Salineites are a pretty "Fair " set.

A week ago last Sunday the marriage two paupers, Jas. Estill, a young colored man with both feet off up to his ankles, and a young colored girl named Amanda Johntrees in the door yard of the county farm, in Howard county, Judge Tolson, officiating. There were a number of citizens pres ent to witness the extraordinary affair

"A country editor claims to be indepen ient because he 'wears no man's collar For that matter he may be wearing shirt, and yet have a mind bound in neck and biased all over."-Examiner. The "vile wretch" who wrote the Jefer to any Chariton county "Knight of the quill." It cannot be.

The Washington Star says Mrs. Frence man, of Gasconade county, Mo., while planting corn, placed a basket containing $70 in greenbacks by the side of the field a calf retired the greenbacks by swal-owing them. It was immediately butcher ed and the fragments recovered from the ury. Being found all right, a check was returned for the full amount.

The Sedalia Democrat says the negroes have taken possession of Sedalia. "A white lady without a male escort cannot walk the streets without being forced off the side walks and insulted. If the police authori-ties do not do something to check them in their career, the people will take the mat-ter into their own hands. Woe unto the darkies when the color line is raised, and they seem determined to raise it." The Chillicothe Tribune says there een considerable unensiness among farmers, on account of "rust" on the wheat. We are informed by careful observers, tha thus far rust has appeared only on the leaves; none on the stalk. Some say that harm is likely to result unless the rust shall assail the stalk; and they add that this does not usually happen except when hot sunshine succeeds suddenly to rainy,murky weather.

The citizens of Carrollton are making as fort to have the roads leading into that sition to do the same improvemen to be paid for a by general tax, was submitted to the people, and voted down. The effort now is to accomplish the work by subscription and private means. The enterprise is a most commendable one, and is a matter to which the people generally should give

The editor of the Unionville New Centuwent out on a little tramp the other day. In speaking of the crops rounds, he says "We were shown a field of wheat which good judges say will yield 30 way, our subscription books are open to converts, and for one dollar and fifty cents any one can have his or her name spread upon the roll of honor as a member in good standing for the long time of fifty-two weeks Right here we will say that any one paying one dollar and fifty cents for the COURTE for one year, if, at the expiration of eigh months, he can conscientiously say the pa-per has not, in the time he has received it been worth the full amount paid, we will re-fund the $1 50, and send the paper the remaining four months free of charge. for the statement that one Daly, a representative of the St. Louis Journal, Thursday evening of last week, brutally insulted a highly respectable married lady of that town. He was carried before the city recorder and fined $30 for the offence. It was all the marshal could do to prevent a crowd of enraged men, who were well prepared, from horse-whiping the vile wretch, which, if he actually committed the crime, he so richly deserved. Notice was served upon him to leave the corporate served upon him to leave the corporate limits within thirty minutes after his re-lease which he did.

We regret to chronicle the death of Adol-phus, infant son of our esteemed citizen, Mr. J. C. Crawley. The deceased child was about one year old, and the picture of health. While in Brunswick last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Crawlew were immediately telegraphed for and were soon at the side of their loved one. All that skilled physicians could do to alleviate his pains and restore him to health, was done, but he lingered on till about 8 o'clock Tuesday even ing, when he was called away to Him who said "Suffer little children to come unto me." We tender to the family our sincere

"We are in receipt of a letter from Brace, agent for the Children's Aid Society, who says he will certainly be in Fayette on the 6th of June with one hundred children, Keytesville and Its Business.

This is the oldest town in the county. fany of our citizens and business men were among the first settlers in the town. Keytes-ville is well located, with good roads leading in all directions, surronded by some of the best farming regeons in the state. Our citizens are, as a class, the most courteous and ospitable in the west. The business mer reactive, energetic and enterprising. The ourt-house, located here, is one of the costliest and most handsome buildings in North Missouri. Three strong religious de ominations, in a small place, testify to the noral and religious status of the community We have good public schools—white and colored. The professions are well represented, embracing some able lawyers, and skilled physicians. As we shall give personal notice of some of the business

Robt. White, proprietor of one of the first dry goods houses, is a live, energetic business man, a courteous and affable gentleman, and is attentive and accommodating to his customers. He keeps the best quality of goods and sells as cheap as the cheap est. He has many friends and patrons whom he gives general satisfaction. D. Victor is an enterprising and popu ar merchant. He is always on the alert to dense customers, and has a display of choice goods that never fails to eaptivate the eye of all who enter his establishment. Anything that you want can be purchased of him upon the most reasonable terms. He is a genial and polite gentleman, and in two years has established a large circle of friends ind a successful business. Wm. E. Hill, banker and proprietor popular of our merchants. He is an active, thorough business man, and knows how to please customers. His stock is full and well selected, and he will give you a bargain if you call on him. No second-class goods are imposed upon his customers.

Wheeler & Jared, proprietors of the famly grocery, are gentlemen well known and iked for their pleasant and agreeable treatnen well known and ment of their many customers, and their strict personal and business integrity. They keep all the goods in their line, usually sold by first-class grocerymen. sens visiting them will receive courteous

Thos, Stevens, who has long and deser redly, had the reputation of being one of our most popular merchants, is a genial, whole-souled gentleman, who makes friends very readily, and always retains them. His stock of goods is always complete, and he thows patrons every attention and accommodation

Mr. A. Mrckay, Sr., proprietor of the Mackay Hotel, is too well known to require notice at our hands. As an intelligent, high toned, polished gentleman, none can excel him. As a landlord, he stands among e most popular and highly esteemed, by Martin & Applegate proprietors of drug store, are gentlemen of excellent business qualifications and extensive acquaintance. They are enterprising and energetic bus ness men, and spare no pains to make their stablishment attractive. Their stock of drugs is complete, pure and well selected and all who call on them may expec courtesy and promptness.

Chas. Ventch & Co., proprietors of drug store, occupy a front position in their business. Always pleasant, agreeable and po-lite, with a full stock of well selected drugs, they succeed in winning the friendship of, and giving satisfaction to all who pay them J. L. Potts, jeweler, is a skilled and reliable workman, and a good business man. He has been here a long time and, so far, has given entire satisfaction. His stock of jew-elry is complete and of the best selection. He has many warm, personal friends. Mr. J. R. Horsley, proprietor of hard-ware store, is one of Keytesville's oldest bushels per acre. Its average hight is 5 feet citizens, and a man highly esteemed by all fined habits, and treats all customers with marked respect and attention. He keeps and rate, can stack forty tons or hay in a lion Barnes, proprietor of Saddle and single day, and do it with greater case than Harness abop, has won, by his with a line supparable corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line of their terrors and specific corrective and line greater case than the line greater case the line greater case than the line greater case the line greater ca fred. Arbogast, proprietor of restaurant, is very popular with all the young folks. He is genial, accommodating and always has an eye to his customers' interests.

These mean by reduce the "Boss" stacker age, with universal satisfaction.

turers of wagons, carriages, &c., are too favorable known to the public, for their in tegrity, skill, and business qualifications to require comment from us.

J. P. Tippett, manufacturer of wagons and plows, is a thorough, competent business man, in whom the public has just confidence. He is well known over the entire country which is an facient for matter. county, which is sufficient for us to say. Geo. M. Wilson, undertaker and dealer in furniture, is one of our most enterpris-ing and successful basiness men. He keeps a full and well selected stock. F. Hansmann, boot and shoe maker, has a well merited reputation in his business. He uses the best material and never fails giving a customer a good fit.

D. Overstreet, barber, is an expert in his business. If you want anything done in the tonsorial line, you can't find a better the mannfacture of the "Boss" stacker and rake, at this place, and is a most reliable man. Liver is King.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and bleed the action of the brain and parvous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has seen successfully proved that Green's Aujust Flower is unequaled in curing all perplaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try 10 cts. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Dafton.

DALTON, Mo., June 4, 1878. EDITOR CHARITON COURIER: Dear Sir :- All the principal sections our county will be represented through the columns of your paper, and although the cities of Brunswick, Salisbury and Keytes ville tower above our unpretending little town of Dalton, like giant oaks in the forest of population, yet "tall trees from little acorns grow," and Dalton will one day be equal to these towns in population, as it is o-day in business.

In giving you an account of the various In giving you an account of the various events transpiring here, it becomes my province first, to pay a tribute of respect to Mrs. Mary A. Harper, whose death, on the 31st ult., was mourned by all who knew her. Mrs. Harper was born March 1, 1812, in Prince Edward county, Virginia, and has add in Charitan county Ma, since 1844. esided in Chariton county, Mo., since 1844. She was a faithful and consistent member of the Baptist church, of Keytesville. family has sustained an inestimable loss and they have the sympathy of our entire ommunity.
On Saturday, June 1st, our town wa full of candidates. Col. R. H. Musser en tertained our Democratic club for one and one-half hours and acquitted himself with onor. We have been expecting other candidates for congressional honors, to give us a call, but, alas, they have not made an appearance. Mesars. Dysart, Dougherty, Cabel, Hammons, Doxey and Hamilton each made some few remarks, telling us of the good old times and pointed, with confidence, to the star of just ahead, saying, "boys, there's a better time coming," and that one day we Demo-crats would be "monarchs of all we sur-

We have had a Democratic association organized here for some time, and we are satisfied that the Democratic voice of Bow ling Green township, is decidedly in favor of a convention, and that it is opposed to a primary election, because the latter leaves too many loop-holes through which the too many loop-holes through which the Radical tricksters may work. We are decidedly in favor of our Democratic candidates being selected by democratic votes, therefore let us preclude all possibility of the Radical voice, and have a county cortion. Yours truly, Hibler.

Rothvillie. ROTHVILLE, JUNE 4th 1878. Ma. Rottor:—If you can find space we will give you a few local items. Crops in this vicinity are generally very good. The spirit of enterprise which has heretofore characterized our citizens is perceptible.

We have two good stores. The oldest is owned by Mr. F. F. Hamilton, Mr. H.

has been in business here so long that every one knows him, and by his fairness and candor has established a reputation which insures his success. He keeps a good stock of general merchandise.
The firm of Riddell & Hamilton have large store and do a good business. An addition is now being built to their store-room, which will make it one of the largest and best in the county.

The black-smith shop of Cameron & Bro. does a large business, with general satisfac-

In addition to the above we have Harness, Carpenter, and Boot and Shoe shops, which for want of time I cannot mention Drs. R. H. Ingram and W. W. Johnson two resident physicians, are gentlemen of high culture, courteous, and skilled in their Mr. T. P. Wilkinson has recently return ed from a trip to Texas. Rev. Mr. Allen of the M. E. Church, is stationed here. Mr. John Upt sold a fine drove of cattle.

48 in number, to Craine Bro's. of Linn Co., few days since. The average weight wa 1,399 pounds.

We will let you hear from this section a Pleasant Experience Is always the happy result of using Parker's Ginger Tonic. The mother gains surern part of the county than it does down this way, though the mice have destroyed very many acres. Spring wheat and oats look very well; and several very fine fields of rye were noticed.

The celebrated "Boss" hay stacker and rate, manufactured by S. H. Powers, Keytsville, Ma, are the best and most recommical machines of the kind in ore.

Recommical machines of the kind in ore.

The commical machines of the kind of the machines of the machines of the base of the commical machines of the kind of the machines of the base of the commical machines of the commical machines of the commical machines of the commical machines of

Mr. Orerstreet has leased use little velow frame dwelling east of the court house, which he has had repaired, and is now "fitting up" for house keeping.

The Minma Index reports the prospect for a good crop of wheat in Saline county on the increase. It says wheat looks better than it did a short time since.

That managers have published a notice than it did a short time since.

The managers have published a notice that the Huntville Savings Bank will on a fafer July 1, 1878, cease of the court-house, has grown in depths and object in the intension of the court-house, has grown in depths and of the first the many street than it did a short time since.

The managers have published a notice that the Huntville Savings Bank will on a fafer July 1, 1878, cease to be uniformly street than it did a short time since.

The managers have published a notice that the Huntville Savings Bank will on a fafer July 1, 1878, cease to be uniformly street than it did a short time since.

The managers have published a notice that the Huntville Savings Bank will on a fafer July 1, 1878, cease to be uniformly street than it did a short time since.

The managers have published a notice that the Huntville Savings Bank will on a fafer July 1, 1878, cease to be uniformly street than it did a short time since.

The managers have published a notice that the Huntville Savings Bank will on a fafer July 1, 1878, cease to be stay over two weeks.

The managers have published a notice father, near Collumbia, Boone county, on the limit of the will be stay over two weeks.

The managers have published a notice father, near Collumbia, Boone county, on the latter place of the man as a private bank, under the firm and an after July 1, 1878, cease to be because and control of the stay of the mile stay of the mile stay of the mile stay of the mile stay wheat looks and the stay of the stay of the mile sta

It is a question of importance to all af-flicted creatures, whether they will be en-ed of disease by remedies which leave a long train of had after effects, or by a med-icine that strikes at the cause of the malady harm than that much water! CLIFFORD'S caused by malaria, is a palpable, powerful Antiperiodic and Tonic, and yet never pro-duces headache, noise in the ears, deafness or any of the evils consequent on the use of Quinine, Arsenic, etc.

1316 J. C. Richardson, Prop'r.
For sale by all druggists. St. Lou ccurs to us that some improvements be made in our streets, and that now preparation on Main street, and a begin to feel a desire to see the work The spring of the year is the time to good and lasting improvements on or roads. Shall we have such in ments? If not, why not?

Hade Brown, the murderer of Mrs ish, in Randolph county, last yes been captured in Minnesota. The Sh Randolph county has gone after him

We direct the attenion of our rea the advertisement of Wm. E. Dalton other column. Mr. Dalton is a your of genial disposition, fine business qualtions, energetic and full of enterprise, citizens of Dalton could not do well wi him and should be proud to have his their midst. He keeps a complet stock of class family groceries, and those calling him will receive prompt and polite attent

A correspondent at White's Store, H ard county, writing to the Advertiser, se "The warm sunshine and genial showe" the last week have had a tremendous " upon our wheat in the way of improv I notice a number of fields with blas blackened heads; other than this, th

Martha T. Hershey, 10, are warned against trusting her on will not be responsible for any debt Keytesville, May 15th, 1878. Railroad Time Table. Trains leave Keytesville as folio outso East.

Mail and Express.

Night express.

Way freight
Moberly and Brunswick freight Mall and express

R. W. GOLDSBY. Attorney at Law KEYTESVILLE, MO.

Will do a general legal business all Courts in this and adjoining cou preme Court of the State. Especi tention will be given to making properly certified. Also the collec-Bank of Keytesvil

Wm. E. HILL, Cashier. Does a General Banking Business Accounts invited. Buys and sells Drafts

on St. Louis and No Vork

MRS. EMMA RIDDING,

City Bakery & Resumment Keeps a full stock of Candies, Cas . Ples Fresh Bread, Cigars, Tobacco and

GEORGE WILSON, KEYTESVILLE, MO., UNDERTAKER and dealer in FURNITURE Keeps constantly, on hand all sizes and styles of Metalic Burial Cases, Walnut Coffin

CHEAP FOR CASH. J. P. TIPPETT. KEYTESVILLE, MO. PLOW AND WAGON FACTORY.

Sole agent for the McCormick Mower and Self-Binder THE BEST IN USE. All kinds of Blacksmith repairs done with neatness and dispatch. All work warranted. Prices the lowest for cash. Call and see me at my Old Stand in Keytesville, Missouri

F. ARBOGAST. Restauranteur, Confectioner & Baker.

KEEPS A FULL LINE OF Confectionery, Candies, Nuts. Milwankee Bottled Beer, etc. Also Beer and Wine by the glass. Opposite Mackay's, Keytesviile, Mo. 713m12

G. R. STEUART,

ket price

Schell & Walters Woodwork and Paint S. WAGONS, CARRIAGES & PL of all descriptions. Work warranted and terms low

All work not called for within six after finished, will be forfeited, and amount of our charges. 713: MACKAY'S HOT KEYTESVILLE, MO., This large and commodious ho ways kept well furnished for the dation of guests. The tables at with the best the market affords. Guests can be furnished wi ance to any part of county.

A BUSS LINE MAKES REGULAR

Terms reasonable.

KEYTESVILLE

EVERY TRAIN.

FOR CASH.

MENIDUR. BUTTS No. In N. Eighth St. The PRIVATE MEDICAL

CUS PATENT CHAS. VEATCH & CO.,

ers' Supplies. Warm Meals at air Boarding and lodging, by the week, $3.50.

Single meals, 25 cents. John Leiser's old stand, Keytesville, Mo. 713m12

White Load Wived Doints Lingued Load and Captor file. White Lead, Mixed Paints, Linseed, Lard and Castor Oils, WINDOW GLASS, CHIMNEYS, CUTTLERY, PERFUMERIES, SOAPS, BRUSHES, COMBS, PIPES, INK Writing Paper, and Envelopes and Everything usually found in First-Class Establishments

Physicians' prescriptions carefully compounded. 713m12 JAS. R. HORSLEY. PROPRIETOR, KEYTESVILLE

TIN SHOP AND HARDWARE STORE. Stores, Builders Hardware, of the best quality, Garden Implements, Parlor, Heating and Cooking Stores, Of the latest and most approved patterns at greatly rejuced prices. GILDEN'S BARBED FENCE WIRE.

All goods sold as cheap, for cash, as they can be bought west of St. Louis.

J. R. Horsley. J. L. POTTS.

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, SOLID AND PLATED SILVER WARE.

KEYTESVILLE. MO., My stock is large, well assorted, entirely new and I positively will not be undersold. Watches and Clocks, also Guns and Pistols promptly re-713m12 Paired. All work guaranteed. Respectfully.

DON'T YOU FORGET IT!"

Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, Glass, Proks, Fancy and Tollet Articles

Flour ALL WO! mineci to enlarge mills, we close a REDUC

Passengers Must Buy Tickets, S TT2 Otherwise Conductors will charge alty of 10 cents to 30 coa

Gen'I